In the Tory Ranks Great Aid to Campaign of Their Opponents.

Irish Will Safeguard Religious Liberty Under Home Rule.

May Be an Early and Easy Settlement of the Veto Question.

REDMOND'S USEFUL SERVICE

Though there are indications, cables T. P. O'Connor to the Chicago Tribune, of the coming Irish political struggle when Parliament opens in the end of January, all topics for the moment are submerged by the recent battle in Stephen, in which all of the military forces in London were called out to capture a house held by two handbills. Turning to the political situation, the Liberal and Irish prospects are even brighter by the renewed and even fiercer hostility between the different sections of the Tories. A. J. Balfour's sidetracking of tariff reform is bringing daily an increased division and personal unpopularity in his own party. The Liberals now calculate that there are five different sections in the Tory ranks. The confusion is made worse by the incidents at the by-election in Lincolnshire, caused by the death of a Peer and the removal of his heir in the House of Lords. The Tory candidate opened the campaign by announcing he was not fighting the election or the tariff, but on the constitutional issue. In other words, this candidate adopted the policy of Balfour and tried to sidetrack the tariff. A storm of rebuffs burst upon his head from the tariff camp, and though the unfortunate candidate attempted to withdraw his unhappy manifesto the storm still rages.

The Morning Post, as usual, leads the anti-Balfour campaign and it prints a letter from Edward, Countess, the young energetic Irishman who is the head of the rabid protectionist section of the Tories, in which Balfour's policy is indirectly denounced as cowardly and as reducing the Tories to jugglers and tricksters.

These Collins, Austen Chamberlain's most devoted lieutenant, joins the fray by denouncing the Lord George Hamilton, who resigned a high office in the Balfour Ministry as a protest against the adoption of Balfour of Chamberlain's protectionist policy. Hamilton retorts by a vicious fling at the Chamberlain section as of no importance.

These discordant voices will weaken the Tories in the approaching fight over the tariff, and may lead to an early and easy settlement of that controversy. While the fiery backwoodsmen still call out "No surrender!" and invite Premier Asquith to create his 500 new Peers, cooler heads among the Tories perceive that such a desperate measure, if forced on Asquith, will confer on him a final weapon for destroying the present House of Lords and carrying home rule and all the other Liberal reforms. It would give him a House of Lords where the Liberals would hold, for the first time in history, an overwhelming majority. My present forecast is that all of these events are forcing Balfour to rally his party, by abandoning tariff reform, putting up a sham fight on the House of Lords' veto, and finally concentrating on the fight against home rule.

This anti-Irish cry plays the part in English politics of the bloody shirt cry in the years after the civil war in America, already the Irish Tories are fiercely active, because it is seriously alarmed at the prophesying of civil war and the appearing of the "No Popery" sentiment. Redmond does useful service this week by the article showing how nearly half of Ulster is Catholic and home rule, and by renewing his pledge, often given before, that the Irish party will welcome every safeguard asked for the protection of religious liberty and absolute equality of all creeds under home rule.

RECEIPTS INCREASING.

The returns from the Society for the Preservation of the Faith Among Indian Children for 1910 show a gain over the receipts of the preceding year. The returns have been from membership fees, $10,268.62; from special appeal of the bureau, $11,040.96; from the Marquette League, $2,507; from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, $3,840.73; a grand total of $27,658.31. This shows an increase in the gross receipts of $6,174.68 for 1910.

KNIGHTS BRANCHING OUT.

A council of the Knights of Columbus will be instituted today at San Juan, Porto Rico, by Past Grand Knight John F. Harrett, of Le Moyne Council, Syracuse, N. Y., and State Deputy Daniel J. Griffin, of New York City, who have been deputed by the Supreme Council to establish the order on the island. Albert J. McCarthy, also of Syracuse, and Thomas F. Hanessy, of Oswego, are also on the State Deputy's staff. The State Chaplain, Rev. Father Farrell, was in charge of the party, which sailed from New York last week. The Right Rev. Bishop Jones, of Porto Rico, is much interested in the establishment of the society in the diocese. The Knights from the United States will spend a week in sight-seeing and will return to New York on January 23.

MACKIN COUNCIL

Prepares For Active Enterprises During Coming Months.

President Samuel L. Robertson was greeted by several hundred members of the Y. M. C. A. when he opened Mackin Council's meeting on Monday night. Four members were reported ill, Dan Quill being in serious condition, while James Calmback and Will Shaughnessy were improving. It was one of the briefest of Mackin's meetings and also a heavy expense he was able to turn over a nice sum to the council treasury. The report showed that in point of receipts 1910 was "the biggest yet."

It was announced that Mackin would give a euchre on the evening of January 19, and particular attention was called to the next dance of Mackin's social club, which is to take place on January 26. It is to be known as the Tokio dance, so as to show Mackin in Japan. Three prizes are to be awarded the ladies wearing costumes most appropriate to the occasion.

President Robertson announced his standing committees for the year and named fifteen delegates to the Catholic Federation. It was also decided to repeat the operative success of past years, a committee being appointed with Thomas D. Clines as Chairman.

IRISH CHURCH

Another Gem Added to the Treasures of Rome.

For more than a year the Church of St. Patrick in Rome has been raising altars, but quickly and majestically, from its foundations in the via Ludovica—so silently that many even of the Irish residents of the city have been unaware of the fact so quickly that it will be ready for opening on next St. Patrick's day, and so majestically that the new temple more than promises to be another gem of the ecclesiastical architecture added to the treasures of Rome. The facade is mainly of Tivoli travertine; an ample portal, rich in pilasters and columns, surrounded by mosaic representing St. Patrick receiving his mission from the Pope, and flanked by two niches destined to contain the statues of St. Bridget and St. Columbkille, gives entrance to the church, which is approached by eight steps from the street. Over the portal and running across the whole front is a large frieze carved arabesque, and upon this rests a portion of nine arches, in the center of which is to be seen the coat-of-arms of the reigning Pontiff, and above this again rises the large central window. The facade is crowned by a cornice supported by fifteen arches with pillars, and in the middle, over the great window, is a mosaic representing St. Patrick in the act of blessing. Above the tympanum and crowning the whole edifice rises an Irish cross in carved stone. The length of the church, including the ample vestibule, is about 175x78 feet.

MUCH TO CHARITY.

The late George L. Fox, a well known non-Catholic of Brooklyn, N. Y., by his will bequeathed large sums of money to various Catholic institutions. The estate is valued at $1,500,000, nearly all of which will go to charitable institutions. Catholic, Protestant and Jewish. Mr. Fox's bequests to Catholic institutions amount to $185,000.

APPOINTED PROVINCIAL.

Very Rev. James A. Rockliff, S. J., has been appointed Provincial of the Society of Jesus for the California province, which embraces all the Jesuit communities on the Pacific coast. Father Rockliff succeeds the late Very Rev. Herman J. Goller, S. J., who died rather suddenly a few weeks ago. He is fifty-eight years old, and a native of England. He was appointed some years ago by Pope Pius X. to preside over the establishment of a Jesuit university in Tokyo.

FIFTY GOLDEN YEARS.

Friends of Sister Da Chantal, of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, are preparing to celebrate her golden jubilee on February 22. The prospective jubilarian is one of the oldest members of her order and has held many positions of trust. At present she is residing at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital. She was one of the preceptors of Mary Anderson, the celebrated actress, now Madame Navarro.

PATRIOTS

Who Are Redeeming Louisville Public Schools Are A. P. A's.

Chancellor Bingham Seems to Have Been Given Assurance.

Herald Wakes Up to Fact of A. P. A. Republican Combine.

NEW JUNIOR ORDER OFFICERS

Hon. Robert Worth Bingham has been named Judge of the First division of the Chancery branch of the Jefferson Circuit Court to succeed Judge Shackelford Miller, who has ascended to the Court of Appeals. There is a persistent rumor that Mr. Bingham would not accept the Chanceryship until he had been assured that he would get the Republican nomination for the same office this fall. Meanwhile the editor of the Post is booming Mr. Bingham for Mayorality honors in 1913, but the editor of the Post predicted that Grantwood would win by a majority of 9,000 in 1909. The Louisville Herald seems to realize at last that the editor of the Post was really for Gottschalk and Weaver on the A. P. A. School Commission ticket, and that the Post's support of the Citizens' ticket was a bluff. The Post knew that the Junior Order and Republican organization had combined and it does not deny that the A. P. A. ticket was given the Republican precinct captains the night before the election. The Junior Order has been claiming ever since the election that it saved the schools.

The new officers of Banner Council, No. 1, O. U. A. M., are as follows: Councilor, Stanley Berger, packer Washburn-Crosby, resides 1027 East Broadway; Past Councilor, Carl Rehm, draftsman James Clark Electric Company; Recording Secretary, John Melver, J. Bacon & Sons, resides 322 St. John Court; Assistant Recording Secretary, William Gottschalk, salesman for Charles W. Lighton & Company, resides 732 East Chestnut; Treasurer, John Schmeltzer, harbor, 310 West Green street; Financial Secretary, William S. Markoff, clerk for the L. and N. R. Bacon & Sons, 951 Samuei; E. Drifill, blacksmith, 725 Shelby.

Here is another list of the patriots who are protecting our school system and whose motto is "Down with the immigrants." They are the officers of Baxter Council, the latest acquisition to the Junior Order ranks in Louisville: Councilor, Fred Zorn, plumber for J. C. Meyer, resides 907 Baxter avenue; Past Councilor, Frank Zorn, clerk for L. and N., resides 519 East Breckinridge; Financial Secretary, Frank Zorn, ex-Lieutenant of police, resides 2804 Fifth; Treasurer, J. WON HONORS.

A cablegram from Rome says the distribution of prizes to the students of the ecclesiastical colleges, which almost every country in the world has in Rome, took place the other day in the chapel of the Propaganda Fide, and was presided over by Cardinal Gottl, Prefect of Propaganda, assisted by several other members of the Sacred College. In the presence of many distinguished prelates. On a platform erected for the occasion the students recited essays in their own languages. Besides the European tongues, both dead and living, there were specimens of African, Asiatic and Oceanic, and also some of the American Indian languages. The American students as usual distinguished themselves, and carried away a large number of prizes.

DEATH OF MRS. KELLY.

The congregation of St. Frances of Rome sustained a great loss as well as a deep bereavement in the death of Mrs. Bridget Kelly, one of the best known residents of Clifton, who passed away on Friday morning of last week. Her funeral took place from St. Frances of Rome church on Sunday afternoon, and Father White, who conducted the funeral services, paid a high tribute to the deceased as a Christian woman and Irish mother. Mrs. Kelly was born in Ireland seventy years ago, but had lived in Louisville fifty-one years. John Chester, a well known locomotive engineer, is her eldest son. Her other children are Mrs. Mary Brady, Mrs. Sarah Lyons, Miss Josephine Kelly, Martin Kelly, of Panama; George Kelly, of Alabama, and William Kelly, of Louisville.

Supreme First Vice President Robert T. Burke and Deputy Grand President George J. Lautz went up from Louisville to assist at the installation and both are loud in their praise of Barry Council and its energetic members. J. B. Shannon, the District Deputy, was the installing officer. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a smoker was given in honor of the new officers. An abundance of refreshments had been provided and the Rev. Father M. R. Delaney presided as toastmaster. During the evening quite a number of interesting talks were made. J. B. Ginochio, who has been re-elected President, read a report of the work done in 1910. He showed that the council had made good headway and that it was in better standing than it had been in five years. All spoke encouragingly of the outlook and predicted that 1911 would be a banner year.

Barry Council now has 160 members and on the first Sunday in April will initiate a class of fifty. A degree team from Louisville will accompany the ritual.

RECENT DEATHS.

Miss Annie Teresa Lang, the twenty-year-old daughter of William Lang, died Wednesday afternoon at her home, 2039 Portland avenue. Her funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Patrick's church, many sorrowing friends attending the solemn obsequies. Her mother died some time ago, and for the bereaved father there is widespread sympathy.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Ricketts, aged sixty, who died last week at Trinidad, Col., and whose remains were brought to Louisville, took place Monday morning from Sacred Heart church. Rev. Father Walsh being the celebrant of the solemn requiem mass. Mrs. Ricketts was the mother of James Ricketts, 1905 Maple street, and was a most estimable woman, loved by all who knew her.

The deceased was associated in business with his father and was well liked by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers and four sisters.

Mrs. Ellen Maloney died at her residence, 1207 Rogers street, on Thursday morning. She was seventy-seven years old and a native of Ireland, but had spent the greater part of her life in Louisville. She is survived by several children, among them Mrs. Margaret Maloney and John Maloney, a member of the Louisville Fire department. At the hour of going to press the funeral arrangements had not been completed. Mrs. Maloney was one of the pioneer residents of the Hill and was held in high regard by all who knew her.

GIVES MEN WORK.

The new Louisville Packing Company has begun operations and is giving employment to between 400 and 500 men. It succeeds the old Louisville Packing Company that dropped out of business several years ago. The officers of the new company are J. J. Caffrey, President; P. G. Betz, Vice President, and E. M. Caffrey, Secretary and Treasurer. The new company has rehabilitated the old plant, and it is now pronounced to be one of the best equipped in the entire country.

DEDICATION.

The new auditorium just completed for St. Boniface Hall will be dedicated and thrown open to the public on Sunday, January 29. The programme includes a grand concert and every effort will be made to make the occasion one to be long remembered. This auditorium is not supposed to be any connected with the churches of the city, and will be of great benefit to the different societies of the parish.

RALLIES FROM SHOCK.

The many friends of Mrs. Henry Pasick, who was reported seriously ill early in the week, will be glad to learn that she is rapidly regaining her health and strength. On Friday morning of last week Mrs. Pasick fell in a faint across a bathtub at her home, 1012 Everett avenue, and for a time her life was considered in danger.

ASQUITH

Must Deal Promptly If Irishmen Continue to Support Him.

Result of Election is Entirely Satisfactory to John Redmond.

Nationalists' Hold Balance of Power in Coming Sessions.

ROSTER OF THE IRISH MEMBERS

The British Parliament will resume its sessions next month and Irishmen all over the world are anxious to see just what measure of home rule Premier Asquith proposes to offer Ireland. The people of Ireland are so sanguine that they doubled their subscriptions to the Nationalist fund and the appeal of Messrs. Redmond, Devlin and O'Connor to America met a generous response. The close of the year brought success to Redmond and his colleagues in the general election, and that success was more significant than the figures indicate.

Two seats were won from the Unionists, and of the Independents only eight belong to the O'Brien party, which is confined to the County Cork, and there received only slender majorities. In East Cork, William O'Brien, whose chief plank is conciliation of Protestants, was decisively defeated by a Protestant Unionist, Capt. Donelan, who was supported by the Catholic Bishop. Of the eighty-four Nationalists elected seventy-six are pledged to vote with Redmond, while the remaining eight are followers of O'Brien. These eighty-four men represent all Munster and Connaught, all Leinster except Trinity College, which always elects two Conservatives, and sixteen out of the thirty-three Ulster seats. The following is a complete roster of the Irish members of the new Parliament:

CATHOLIC

Laborites to Study Social Problems in Very Correct Way.

Militia of Christ Is Made Up of Real Labor Leaders.

Defense of Christian Order of Society Is Chief Object.

PROMINENT MEN ARE LEADERS

The "Militia of Christ" is the name of a new organization formed for the purpose of social service by prominent Catholic members of the American Federation of Labor, and its first fruits were seen at the recent national convention of the Federation of Labor in St. Louis. In explaining the purpose of the new organization Rev. Peter E. Dietz, who addressed the Laborites, said: "It is our idea that society is built upon the unit, the family is built upon the unit, the State is built upon the unit. As we look out over the State we notice it is an industrial State. As an industrial State it rests upon industrial society and industrial society to a great extent rests upon trades unionism. In fact, we can say that trades unionism is the very backbone of industrial society, and therefore the great problem of social reform is largely the problem of trades unionism. We have witnessed in the nineteenth century a great democratic movement. We have noticed everywhere how the power of government or of forming the government has passed from the hands of the few into those of the great masses of the common people. It is not necessary to examine the causes, but it has forced the legislatures of every civilized land to give a larger share of its work to the social problems, to the adjustment of the relations of the workmen and the employers, of the rich and the poor. The poorer and weaker are portion of the population and it is meet and just and right in a democracy that they shall have the greatest share in making and in the administration of the law, and that they are entitled to the largest benefit of the law. But we realize that the protection of the State can not be enduring unless it is sustained by labor organization. The very fact that the country gives continued evidence of social dissatisfaction and disaster is proof to any thinking man that society is not sufficiently organized. If every industry were organized, the parasitic industries that take and use up the blood of the successive relays of working men, casting the worn-out toiler on the scrap heap, to be taken care of by the community, would cease to exist or would have to be amended."

The officers of the new organization as well as the directors are all well known in national labor circles and are known for their work in Catholic fields in their home towns. They are:

President—Peter J. McArdle, Pittsburgh, President Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.
Vice President—John S. Whalen, Rochester, ex-Secretary of State of New York.
Second Vice President—Peter W. Collins, Springfield, Ill., Secretary International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.
Recording Secretary—Thomas J. Duffy, East Liverpool, Ohio, President National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery.
Executive Secretary—Rev. Peter E. Dietz, Oberlin, Ohio.
The bureau is located at Oberlin, Ohio, to which all communications are to be directed.
The Directors are as follows: John Mitchell, New York City, Chairman Trades Agreement department, National Civic Federation.
James O'Connell, Washington, D. C., President International Association of Machinists.
Denis A. Hayes, Philadelphia, President International Association of Glass Bottle Blowers.
John R. Alpine, Chicago, President International Association Plumbers and Steamfitters.
David A. Carey, Toronto, Canada, Chairman Separate School Board Toronto.
Rhody Kenehan, Denver, Treasurer State of Colorado.

REPRIMANDED.

Commander Sims Taken to Task by President Taft.

President Taft decided that Commander W. S. Sims, the United States naval officer who at a recent dinner given in London by the Mayor of that city declared that if Great Britain ever were seriously threatened she could depend on "every man, every dollar, every drop of blood" in this country, should be publicly reprimanded.

"His offense has been so conspicuous," said the President in his letter to Secretary of the Navy Meyer directing the reprimand, "that the action of the department in reprimanding it should be equally so." The President says that whenever an officer of the American navy "is called upon in a foreign country to make a statement in public, so that what he says will necessarily be brought to the attention of the people of other foreign countries, it is his obvious duty to avoid invidious comparisons and to limit his speech and his expressions of friendship for the country whose guest he is, to language that will not indicate a lack of friendship toward other countries."

Commander Sims can not escape censure, the President holds, "on the grounds that what he said was a mere expression of his personal opinion; under the circumstances he must speak as an official representative and he should have known that the words he used would be called for severe comment in other countries than Great Britain and might involve this Government in explanations and disclaimers." Capt. Sims' tour of sea duty will expire early in March and he will then be relieved from command of the Minnesota, and the question will arise as to what shall be done with him.

FLOURISHING.

Phil Sheridan Council, Y. M. C. Starts New Year Well.

At a meeting of Phil Sheridan Council, Y. M. C. A., at Bellevue, Ky., last Monday night the following officers were installed to serve during the present year: Chaplain, Rev. Father Kehoe; President, Michael Metz; First Vice President, H. M. Grollich; Second Vice President, Louis Hudepohl; Recording Secretary, Rudolph Hills; Corresponding Secretary, Norbert Geas; Financial Secretary, Frank Shoemaker; Treasurer, Harry Hudepohl; Marshal, Joseph Schuler; Outside Sentinel, Philip Walker; Outside Sentinel, August Sauer; Executive Committee, Joseph Van Hone, Joseph A. Cassidy, Val Thrum, Charles Brickmy and John Hills, Jr.; Medical Examiner, Dr. L. M. Spitzelberger.

Edwin Trimbus was the installing officer and conducted the ceremonies in a very impressive manner. A spirited address was made by Past President John Hills, Jr., whose term was a banner one for the council. He reviewed the principal events of the past twelve months including the Grand Council and the purchase of the home and thanked all the members for the assistance rendered him. In turn he promised to lend his assistance to the new officers.

Michael Metz, the new President; John W. Houwer, of Newport, and Joseph A. Cassidy made addresses full of interest to the members. The members were urged to attend the meeting on January 22, when Grand President Lawo, of Memphis, will visit the council. A Dutch lunch and social session followed the business meeting. Three new members were hailed upon and elected.

WINS THIRD TIME.

The many friends in Kentucky of Hubert F. Croghan, former Supreme Vice President of the Catholic Knights of America, who has visited Louisville several times, welcome the news that after a hard fought contest he has been elected the third time to the City Council of Providence, R. I. They hope he may yet occupy the Mayor's chair.

MISUSE OF SCHOOLS.

There is a State law that the public schools of Louisville are to be used for educational purposes only, but there is at present a movement on foot to disregard the law and turn the schools over to self-constituted social reformers. These busy bodies are women and engage in organizing what they call "Mothers' Clubs" and "Parents-Teachers' Associations." They meet in the public schools and use the heat, light and fuel that ought to be used for the children only. What good can these hen parties accomplish? They entail additional cost to the taxpayers, and if permitted to continue will entail more. If the new Board of Education wants to do something at the outset to recommend it to the public it should refuse to allow the school houses to be used for anything except educational purposes.

If the philanthropic ladies behind the Parents-Teachers' Association are in real earnest they will arrange for meeting places aside from the school houses.

NEVER WERE HOPES HIGHER.

Reviewing the political situation in Ireland, the Dundalk Democrat predicts that the new year will be a red-letter one in Irish history. It will mark the advent of home rule as a measure of practical politics. Gladstone's first home rule bill was wrecked by the defection of a section of his own party headed by Chamberlain and the Duke of Devonshire. His second bill was thrown out by the Lords. The Liberals of that day lacked the courage to face the Lords in a decisive struggle for the mastery. Today the Liberals are practically solid in their support of home rule. They have thrown down the gauntlet of battle to the Lords, and nothing will save the time-dishonored privilege of that antiquated body save such a failure of courage on the part of the Liberals as would destroy that political party for evermore. The prospect is bright; and it is all the brighter because the Irish people stand solid and determined behind their leaders and will suffer no retrograde movement on the part of the Liberals. We have been close to what looked like victory more than once; and it was our own distracted and disunited condition that was more than anything else responsible for the failure of our hopes as a nation. Let us see to it that in this momentous year of 1911 we close up the ranks, firm and united, behind Mr. Redmond and his party. Let every man who wants home rule have his place in the national organization, ready when the time comes to supply that driving force that may be necessary to bring our cause to a triumphant issue. Let Ireland show that for once it is united and determined, and thus strengthen the hands of our representatives in Parliament to deal fearlessly with the difficult and critical situations that may arise. Never were hopes higher, never prospects brighter. The final victory is at hand if we Irishmen prove ourselves in this last struggle worthy of victory.

AFRAID OF ROME.

Catholicism is certainly giving our Baptist brethren something to think about. Just listen to this pitiful wail from a Baptist missionary in France. As you read you may notice that he grudgingly admits that the Catholic church has produced some good Christians. The wail is from the Rev. Reuben Adams, in France, and appeared in the latest issue of the Baptist World, which is published in Louisville. Rev. Adams says: "At the same time, some of us have been somewhat scared to find out that the Edinburgh Conference of the Roman Catholic church, which we have learned, at the expense of fathers' martyrdom for truth, and in our times too, at our own expense, to consider as the greatest enemy of pure evangelical Christianity, was treated as one of the ultimate branches of the church of Christ. While we are prepared to acknowledge that in spite of its evil spirit, the Roman Catholic church has produced some genuine characters, we believe that it is more and more a real saving faith, and we look upon its progress in the world, if it were real, as the greatest evil which might befall the nations. We therefore are somewhat skeptical as to a lasting union between the High church spirit and the spirit represented by our democratic churches.

"Another fact of ill-omen has struck me, and some others, with regard to the conference. It is the somewhat loose and indefinite way in which the fundamental principle of the Reformation, viz., the divine inspiration and full sufficiency of the Bible, has been treated. In such an ecumenical meeting as that the first act, it seems to us, should have been a solemn and unanimous assertion of that fundamental principle. As it was, it does seem as if the critical views now so largely spread with regard to the Bible have had greater recognition than the old-fashioned, and to us, all-important doctrines of the supernatural inspiration of the book. The one thing on which Rome is very strong is divine authority. Of course we do not agree with Rome on the point of where that authority is lodged; Rome says in the church, we say in the Bible. But unless we are as positive in our affirmation as Rome is in hers, souls who are anxious to find a firm ground on which to rest, will turn away from us to where authority is firmly maintained.

"You ask me also to tell you how things look in France. In the religious sphere, there seems to be, on the part of the Roman forces, a spirit of conquest and assertion. The Pope's late pronouncements against all forms of modernism have alienated many timid voices within the Roman Catholic church who aspire to more liberty. At the same time the progress of lawlessness among the people, arising in part from the decay of religion, makes some thoughtful people very anxious, and they are looking round to see on what new foundations a nation's morality might be reconstructed. "The pity is that even among us, French Protestants, there is that want of faith in the Bible of which I have spoken. All forms of fads are being tried here and there with indifferent success. Will you and your dear readers pray that those of us who are, in great weakness, trying to bring the old gospel to the new generation with a modern adaptations as possible, may be bold, largely increased in numbers and baptized in the Holy Spirit?"

Rev. Sallens acknowledges that the Catholic church is gaining ground; he tells how restless the people are becoming; he notes the decay of religion, the decay of morality in France, and admits that the Government needs reconstruction. Rev. Sallens also lays stress on the fact that his Protestant brethren are trying various religious fads without success.

The Catholic Register of Kansas City, has exposed some men soliciting advertising for what they called a "Catholic Year Book," claiming it was for the benefit of the church. Louisville merchants have suffered from the same class in years gone by, but when threatened with arrest for obtaining money under false pretenses they abandoned this field. The Register will suppress the frauds.

The New Albany Ledger may congratulate itself upon securing Herman Rave for editor. With years of experience and widely known as a writer and poet, our New Albany contemporary will continue the leading daily newspaper of Southern Indiana while Editor Rave occupies the chair.

PLANS FOR PROGRESSING.

Plans for the bazar for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital are progressing rapidly and the Catholics of Louisville are showing a deep interest in the affair. The bazar will be open at Lederkrans Hall on February 22 and will continue three days and nights. A number of very handsome and useful articles will be disposed of. The hospital has been under extraordinary expense during the past year and is badly in need of funds. The Sisters of Charity are in every way worthy of support.

Dunn, Spiritual Director; Stephen J. McElliot, President; Martin Grogan, Recording Secretary, and Joseph F. Wagner, Treasurer.

NEED HIM.

Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange Must Have Ed O'Brien.

The Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange has for the ninth time elected Edward J. O'Brien its President for a year.

Tobacco is Kentucky's staple; Louisville is the greatest tobacco market in the world, and the Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange is the greatest exponent of Kentucky's staple. Mr. O'Brien takes his honors calmly, even if at times reluctantly. He has business of his own to attend, but at the same time he is the czar of the tobacco world. Czar, emperor, Kaiser, king and president must pay their homage to the President of the Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange, and as the filly rings wreath the bowls of their pipes or float from their cigars: "God bless Ed O'Brien."

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

The new year has started well
with the four divisions of this city.
Officers of Division 7 of Syracuse
will endeavor to bring the membership up to 500 this year.

Rev. Father Walsh, of Waltham,
Mass., has been appointed County
Chaplain of Middlesex county.

The Hibernians of Portland, Ore., have adopted resolutions pledging support to John Redmond and the Irish Parliamentary party.

Arrangements are being made for the annual banquet of the Ancient Order of New York City, which will take place at Shanley's Roman Court on February 16.

Division 4 has an excellent degree
team, and it would be well for members of the other teams just organized to witness their work at the coming initiation at Bertrand Hall.

Division 3 meets Monday night,
when there will be something doing.
There will be the usual social hour,
and it is thought the officers will outline their plans for the coming year.

The Hibernians of Rhode Island will celebrate St. Patrick's day with a State parade at Providence. All the divisions in the State and every branch of the Irish National Foresters will participate.

The County Board has placed the St. Patrick's day observance in excellent hands. All are men of experience and good judgment, and it is safe to say they will arrange a celebration in which all can participate.

Division 1 will have a smoker and refreshment Tuesday night, and the Literary Committee promises
those who attend a jolly night. Notifications have been sent out, and it is hoped that every member will respond thereto.

When Division 1 meets next Tuesday night at Falls City Hall it is expected that many long absent faces will be seen there. The new officers are determined to revive interest in the division and increase the attendance at meetings.

Members of Division 2 are warned
not to forget the next meeting, January 18, when they will be treated to a hot roast supper in their new hall at Campbell and Broadway. The officers of the County Board have been invited and will be guests of the evening.

Division 1 of Jeffersonville meets Wednesday night in Elk's Hall, and if there are any members who have not visited the new quarters they are urged to be present. This is the night of the select dance, to which the Falls City Hibernians and their friends are cordially invited.

Music, dancing, singing and an old fashioned banana lunch featured the installation of Ladies' Auxiliary
5 at Indianapolis. The retiring President, Mrs. Campbell, was presented with a beautiful silver purse.
Ladies' Auxiliary 1 of Indianapolis, of which Mrs. John O'Brien is President, is the largest in the State.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will entertain with a euchre party and reception at Falls City Hall next Wednesday night, and have made every arrangement for a pleasant evening for their friends and members of the order, who are all cordially invited to be present. Quite a number of handsome prizes will be distributed.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

The newest skirt is the aeroplane
model.

Almost all dress hats are of exaggerated size.

Fancy Hercules and Titan braids
are the elect of the season.

It is predicted that stripes will be worn a good deal this spring.

Sleeves of different lengths and different colors are worn in the same gowns.

The broad ceinture or girdle seems to be appearing again on the latest frocks.

Kid gloves on the glove order and usually white are worn with any evening costume.

Wide braids are seen on many of the white serge and mohair tailored and dressy suits.

Irish lace bands—carrying out the Irish lace vest or collar so much worn—adorn many sleeves.

A great many velvet bags have come in and many ones outnumber
those which appear last spring.

Veils of solid colors—blue and brown, lavender and even black—have brilliant borders in three to five shades.

Black and white effects are being made up in many lines. A favorite with several of the manufacturers is the background with white pencil lines.

WHERE PEACE REIGNS.

Compare the picture of a pious family with one that is not so. In one there is subordination, peace and union. In the other independence, vexation, discord. Piety constitutes the happiness of one, and independence the unhappiness of the other.

It is not possible that a family
where, morning and night, the prayers are said with exactitude and reverence, should not live an exemplary and Christian life in every other respect. God watches over it with a particular care, and consequently it must be happy.

On the contrary, where this practice is neglected, it is very common for one or more of the household to forget their prayers, and in the house where this is the case there is no real Christianity; God does not dwell there, and whatever may appear to be the case, every member is more or less unhappy, the husband and wife, parents and children being a continuous subject of annoyance to one another. One of the best antidotes for the preservation of piety in the family is the reading of a good Catholic paper.

where.

Dickinson there are now four in North Dakota.

Last Sunday the council at Brainard, Minn., initiated seventy-five candidates, 400 visitors witnessing the ceremony.

ing after two years' service, was presented with a handsome silver tea service by Minneapolis Council.

of the Indiana House of Representatives, and Hon. Robert Emmet Proctor, elected Chairman of the Senate Democratic caucus, are members of the order.

It is expected that at least 1,500
Knights will be present when Ator-

State Legislature a child labor bill which provides no child under fourteen shall be employed except on the farm or in domestic work, and no child under sixteen shall be employed at night. The State Federation of Labor has approved the bill.

EARACHE.

Put two or three live coals in a teacup and sprinkle granulated sugar over them. Place a funnel over this and let the steam and smoke go into the ear through the tube or neck of the funnel. This can not injure the ear and always affords relief quickly.

CELERY TOAST.

A dainty dish for Sunday evening is celery toast. For a small family clean one moderate sized stalk of celery, using all of the stalk and the tender leaves. Cut in small pieces and place in dish over fire,
with just enough water to cook it.
Add a generous pint of milk and let it remain over the fire until scalded. Thicken slightly with flour and add a small pinch of bu-
ter. Pour over slices of well browned toast.

returned at Ulster Winter Assizes against William Duncan in respect of the death of Bernard Duffy, who was struck and knocked down on a roadside near Ballibay, County Monaghan, and who died as a consequence of the injuries then received.
The licensed grocery and hardware establishment of John O'Neill
at Mohill, County Leitrim, was destroyed by fire. The outbreak originated in the parret and the flames spread rapidly, and despite the efforts of a band of volunteers
the place was almost completely guttered. The damage is partly covered by insurance.

The Limerick Guardians received and accepted with regret the resignation of the Very Rev. Dean Shanahan, V. C. late parish priest of St. Munchin's, as chaplain of the Limerick Union. The Dean stated his resignation was due to ill health. The Most Rev. Dr.
O'Dwyer wrote nominating the Rev.
Andrew Murphy as Dean Shanahan's successor to the chaplaincy, and Father Murphy was appointed to the position unanimously.

MANAGING CHILDREN.

What children need need is cheerful, home-like surroundings, good, wholesome food, simple clothing and healthful childish sports. Give them a few toys at a time, but do not be too lavish, for it is the experience of all who have carefully studied children that, where they have a great many playthings, they cease to care for them. Children may inherit tendencies that are difficult to manage, but at heart they are not bad;
it is usually the evil example and mismanagement of their parents that make them so. If mothers realized their great dignity and responsibility more fully, they would feel like fasting in sackcloth and ashes instead of gossiping and scolding before their children.

HAYDN'S ROSARY.

It is related that once upon the famous composer Joseph Haydn, was in company with a number of other musicians of prominence, the question arose as to the best way of refreshing the mind when one is worn out with mental labor. "For my part," said one, "I find nothing so effective as a glass of good wine." Another remarked: "When my ideas begin to fog, I quit my work and go into company." "And how is it with you, Haydn?" asked one of his companions. "I take to my Rosary, which I always carry about me," he answered modestly;
and after a few decades I am sure to feel refreshed, both in body and mind." This answer, made without any pretence of superior virtue, deeply impressed the other composers, who felt that the Queen of Heaven vouchsafed to Haydn's spiritual ear an occasional passage from the sublime music of the celestial dwelling.

GOOD SHOWING.

St. Anthony's Hospital Has Made Excellent Record.

St. Anthony's Hospital, conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis at Barret and Wickliffe avenues, has made another proud record for 1910. Of the 1,082 patients treated during the year only 420 were able to pay for their care; 259 were able to make partial payments and 403 were charity patients. Of the 1,082 patients 834 were native Americans, 117 were born in Germany and forty-seven in Ireland. The others were scattered through various lands, and forty-one were negroes.
The Franciscan nuns play no favorites when it comes to religious creeds, Catholics and non-Catholics being cared for alike. Of the 1,082 patients ninety-three were Baptists, thirteen were Episcopalians, fifty-nine were members of the Campbellite church, forty-nine were Lutherans, fifty-two Methodists, thirty-nine were Presbyterians and 167 had no religion.
For the good things that have come to them the Sisters of St. Francis tender their sincere thanks and trust that God will enhance their work during the coming year.

ANGEL OF POOR.

Sister Who Nursed Sick and Buried the Dead.

Sister Isidore, known in the South as "the angel of the poor," died Saturday at St. Joseph's Convent, New Orleans, after sixty-four years' service in St. Joseph's Order. She was eighty-five years of age, being one of the oldest Sisters in New Orleans, both in years and in length of service. Sister Isidore was born in St. Germain, France, and came to New Orleans from Havre in 1856, and ever since that time, clad in the robes of her order and with a basket on her arm, she was a familiar figure about the New Orleans streets. Through a number of epidemics Sister Isidore nursed the sick and even helped to bury the dead. Once she was near death from yellow fever, but recovered. During the civil war she ministered to the sick soldiers, the widows and orphans. Up to two months ago Sister Isidore continued her work of charity, but the infirmities of age finally forced her to remain inside the convent. Old age was the cause of death.

AVENUE THEATER.

The "Smart Set," the premier negro organization of the country, and the only show of its kind that will reach Louisville this season, will be at the Avenue Theater next week. The cast this year has been strengthened and the company numbers forty people.

MOTION PICTURES.

The moving pictures which the Casino and Orpheum management will present their patrons next week will embrace many pleasing features that deserve to rank as the best presented. There will be the usual changes of programme, augmented by the latest illustrated song hits.

MACAULEY'S.

"The Arcadians," a musical comedy that contains sprightly dances, satisfying ensembles, hitting music and clever dialogue, will be the attraction at Macauley's Theater for the first half of next week. It will be presented by the same company and cast of principals which recently ended their engagement at the New York Theater in New York City.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

The Hopkins' management will offer next week a vaudeville show built largely for laughter and introducing features and a medley of Irish and music that make the bill one of the best of the season. Six high class offerings are now on the regular programme and are all topnotchers. The extra act is much appreciated by the patrons of this popular amusement house.

MASONIC.

"The Nigger," produced last season at the New Theater, New York City, is to be the attraction at the Shubert Masonic Theater for one week, commencing Monday. This play is a story of the South, but its heart appeal is universal, and is said to be free from any suggestion of race prejudice. It neither condemns nor condones. It will be portrayed by a fine company of players, headed by Guy Bates Post.

CARROLLTON Y. M. I.

St. George Council, Y. M. I., at Carrollton, Ky., has installed the following officers for 1911: President, Casper A. Hill; First Vice President, Andrew Westrick; Second Vice President, Henry Heuser; Recording Secretary, Louis Neuwirth; Financial Secretary, Herman Jasper; Corresponding Secretary, John Glauber; Treasurer, William Rader; Marshal, John Kuhlman; Executive Committee, Dr. M. Casey, Henry Grohmyer and Ben Myer; Inside Sentinel, George Grohmyer; Outside Sentinel, George Abel; Council Deputy, John Heilman.

BROKE OPEN POOR BOXES.

Complaint has been made to the police of the robbing of the poor box at St. John's church last Sunday. The entire contents being taken. It is also rumored that in other churches the poor boxes have been broken open. People should keep their eyes open and turn over to the police any one caught in this dastardly work. Any one who will rob the church ought to be in the penitentiary.

COUNTY BOARD

Starts Well and Plans for the Whole Year.

The Jefferson County Board, Ancient Order of Hibernians, held its first meeting of 1911 at Bertrand Hall on Thursday night of last week. In the absence of County President Joe Lynch, D. J. Coleman, the County Vice President, wielded the gavel. Nearly all were new faces on the board, but the work started off with a vigor that indicated all were working for the success of Hibernianism.

The following committee was named to arrange for an appropriate St. Patrick's day celebration: John J. Barry, Thomas Walsh, William T. Meenan and John Hession. The committee will probably arrange a literary entertainment or a big smoker and general jollification at the hall of Division 1. At the next meeting of the County Board the committee will report its recommendations.

Vice President Coleman appointed the following Finance Committee to serve during the year: Thomas Lawler, William T. Meenan, Thomas Stevens and Thomas Lynch. Divisions 1, 2 and 3 were given permission to give entertainments during the spring, but each division must arrange its date so as not to conflict with each other or with the general celebration on St. Patrick's day. It was also decided to give a big general picnic some time during the summer.

TRINITY COUNCIL

Elects Its Representatives to the Catholic Federation.

Trinity Council's meeting Monday evening was well attended. This was the first regular meeting since the installation, and the newly elected officers filled their respective positions in a creditable manner. Applications were received from George J. Volkman, J. A. Hamilton and Peter J. Murphy. The various committees which were appointed at the first of the year reported the names of the Chairman and Secretary of the respective committees. The election for delegates to the American Federation of Catholic Societies resulted as follows: James B. Kelly, Edward Kelly, K. J. Cooney, J. C. Kirchdorfer, David O'Connell and V. K. Ecker.

BIG POULTRY SHOW.

Lovers of fine poultry and pet stock will have a splendid opportunity to enjoy themselves during the annual exhibition of the Louisville Poultry and Pet Stock Association, which will open at Liederkranz Hall on Thursday, January 19 to continue one week. On Saturday, January 21, there will be a lecture by an expert poultry judge. There will also be an exhibit of fine dogs, beginning on Saturday and continuing four days.

SYMPATHY FOR JOHN HUGHES.

Word was received here this week of the death of Patrick Hughes, a venerable resident of Albion, N. Y., which occurred in that city last Saturday. The deceased was the father of John A. Hughes, who is well and favorably known in Louisville as a merchant, now Sealer of Weights and Measures in Mohile, and Joseph Hughes, manager of the Postal Telegraph in Mohile. While in Louisville John A. Hughes made a vast number of firm friends, who extend him sincere sympathy in his bereavement. Both sons went to New York to attend the funeral.

COULD BE BUSY.

Could have been busy at Elizabethtown. Fred Morgan and Miss Nellie Bewley were united in marriage the first part of last week and have taken up their residence at Big Spring. Later Fred Bewley led to the altar Miss Elizabeth Yates, their marriage being solemnized in St. Martin's church at Flaherty.

COVINGTON.

At Covington last Saturday morning the Sisters of St. Elizabeth Hospital observed the fiftieth anniversary of that institution. Right Rev. Bishop Mees was present and was the celebrant of the jubilee mass. There are at present twenty-eight Sisters at the hospital, which is the only one of its kind in the city.
